THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 23, 1956

TO THE HEADS OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

It is the President's desire that all government departments and agencies cooperate with churches throughout the Nation by making possible the attendance of Federal employees at religious services in observance of Good Friday.

Insofar as practicable, employees wishing to attend religious services on Friday, March 30, shall be permitted to be absent on annual leave for that purpose.

By direction of the President:

Philip Young
